COMES NOW Plaintiff, the United States Small Business Administration (hereinafter “SBA”), as Receiver (“the Receiver or Plaintiff”) for Coqui Capital Partners, LP (hereinafter “Coqui”) and for its Amended Complaint against Defendants herein states as follows:

1. Plaintiff brings this action as Receiver for Coqui to recover the respective capital commitments owed under a Subscription Agreement and a Limited Partnership Agreement executed and/or guarantied by each of the named defendants (collectively “the Defendants”) for the benefit of Coqui.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2. Pursuant to the Small Business Investment Act of 1958, as amended (hereinafter the “Act”), 15 U.S.C. §§687 and 687h, and pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§754 and 1367, this Court has jurisdiction over this action, which is ancillary to the receivership proceedings, United States of America v. Coqui Capital, LP, 06-cv-1564 (Swain, J.), currently pending before this Court.

3. Venue is proper in the Southern District of New York pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §687(d) and 28 U.S.C. §1391(b). Venue is also proper in the Southern District of New York as this action is ancillary to the receivership proceedings referred to in paragraph 2.

THE PARTIES

4. Coqui is a Delaware limited partnership that was licensed by SBA as a Small Business Investment Company (“SBIC”) on April 7, 2000, SBA License No. 02/72-0599, under Section 301(c) of the Small Business Investment Act, 15 U.S.C. § 681(c), solely to do business under the provisions of the Act and the regulations promulgated thereunder at 13 C.F.R. §107.1 et. seq (“the Regulations”).

5. At the time of its licensing as an SBIC, Coqui was eligible to obtain, and did obtain, Leverage from SBA in the form of guaranteed Debentures. On or about June, 2001, Coqui amended its Limited Partnership Agreement and became eligible to obtain, and did obtain, Leverage from SBA in the form of Participating Securities.

6. SBA was appointed Receiver for Coqui by Order of this Court dated March 3, 2006 (“the Receivership Order”).

7. On September 13, 2006, this Court entered an order lifting the judicial stay imposed by the Receivership Order and authorized the Receiver to commence this action for recovery against the limited partners of Coqui.

BACKGROUND

61. Plaintiff re-alleges and reincorporates paragraphs 1 through 60 as though fully set forth herein.

62. Shortly after its appointment by this Court, the Receiver took possession of Coqui's corporate books and records.

63. Coqui's corporate books and records include an Agreement of Limited Partnership Agreement ("LPA") effective as of March 6, 2000.

64. Coqui's partnership books and records include various Subscription Agreements that, at Section 1, provide that the signatory subscriber "[w]ill be bound by the terms of the Limited Partnership Agreement" and at Section 3(c) provide that the signatory subscriber has been provided with a copy of the LPA.

65. Pursuant to the Subscription Agreements, all of them having been executed between November 1999 and March, 2000, each named defendant agreed to purchase limited partnership interests in, and become limited partners of, Coqui. Coqui's books and records include Subscription Agreements executed by each of the Defendants with the exception of Defendants Isaac Kier, Jeffrey Davidson, Jeffrey Koffman, Layton, Maslow, Lyons, and Schwartz.

66. The LPA at Section 6.7 provides that 50% of the Voting Interests of the Limited Partners is required to amend the LPA.

67. Coqui's partnership books and records contain the consent of over 50% of the Voting Interests as required by the LPA to a proposed amendment of the LPA in order for Coqui to obtain Leverage from SBA in the form of Participating Securities.

68. Effective June 13, 2001, Coqui amended its Limited Partnership Agreement (“Amended LPA”).

69. Section 1.02 of the Amended LPA provides that Annex GDP and Annex OP are incorporated in the Amended LPA.

70. SBA Annex OP provides at Section 1.2 that in the event of any conflict between the provisions of the LPA and the Act, the provisions of the Act shall control.

71. Section 2.01 of the Amended LPA provides that the operations and actions of Coqui shall be conducted and taken in compliance with the Act.

72. Section 1.08(b)(x) of the Amended LPA provides in part that each Private Limited Partner received, is familiar with and understands the Agreement of Limited Partnership.

73. Section 1.08(b)(xvii) of the Amended LPA provides in part that each Private Limited Partner understands that it is unconditionally obligated to pay its Commitment, subject only to the conditions of the Act and Annex GDP.

74. Section 5.02 of the Amended LPA provides that each Private Limited Partner shall pay such percentage of its Commitment at such time as demanded by the General Partner.

75. Section 5.10 of the Amended LPA provides that the Partnership is entitled to enforce against each partner its respective obligation as specified in the Amended LPA.

76. Section 5.11(b) provides that no partner may be released and no capital obligation may be deferred or reduced by Coqui without SBA’s prior consent.

77. Section 4.09 of the Amended LPA provides that SBA, the federal agency and federal regulator, is a third party beneficiary to the LPA and has the right to enforce the provisions regarding the obligations of the limited partners.

78. Section 10.16 of the Amended LPA provides in part that the Amended LPA and all other written agreements executed by or on behalf of the General Partner and/or the Private Limited Partners and executed or approved by SBA state the entire understanding among the parties relating to the subject matter of the Agreement (Amended LPA).

79. Section 4.02(b) of the Amended LPA provides that except as provided in the SBIC Act, a consent or approval required to be given by SBA under this Agreement will be deemed given and effective for purposes of this Agreement only if the consent or approval is given by SBA in writing or delivered by SBA as provided in Section 10.05 in writing by personal delivery, telefax, telegram or private courier or by regular mail.

80. Section 6 of the Subscription Agreements provides that the Limited Partner appoints the General Partner as the respective Limited Partner's attorney-in-fact with full power and authority to execute the LPA, and file and record any Amendment to the LPA, on behalf of the Limited Partner.

81. Prior to requesting additional Leverage or funding from SBA, Coqui submitted Capital Certificates dated October 31, 2002 and November 19, 2003 to SBA. Paragraph 11 of the Capital Certificates, both of which are executed by defendants Jeffrey Koffman, Isaac Kier and Jeffrey Davidson as members of Coqui's General Partner, state that the capital certificate is "material for the purpose of inducing SBA to disburse SBA funds in reliance upon Applicant's statement."

82. Section E of both Capital Certificates is entitled "Conditions to Exercise of Right to Receive Unfunded Commitments". Under Section E of both Capital Certificates, executed by defendants Jeffrey Koffman, Isaac Kier and Jeffrey Davidson as members of Coqui's General Partner, is inserted "[None]"

83. By Order dated March 3, 2006, this Court appointed the Receiver. The Order granted the Receiver all of the powers and privileges of the General Partner and ordered the Receiver to marshal all of Coqui's assets and preserve and pursue all of Coqui's claims.

84. By separate letters (hereinafter "Call Letters") and in accordance with Section 5.02 of the Amended LPA, the Receiver made a capital call on each of the Defendants, with the exception of Defendants Schwartz, Lyons, LK2St, Ltd., and Maslow, for one hundred percent (100%) of their respective unpaid and unfunded limited partnership capital commitments.

85. By separate letters dated August 21, 2006 (hereinafter "SBA Demand Letters") SBA, the federal agency and third party beneficiary, in accordance with Section 4.09 of the Amended LPA, made a capital call on each of the Defendants, with the exception of Defendants Schwartz, Lyons, LK2St, Ltd., and Maslow, for one hundred percent (100%) of their respective unpaid and unfunded limited partnership capital commitments. The SBA Demand Letters demanded payment in full by September 1, 2006.

86. By separate letters dated February 5, 2007, SBA and the Receiver both made demand upon Defendant Albert Schwartz pursuant to a guaranty of payment of the capital commitment made by the Stella and Albert Schwartz 1994 Grandchildren's Trust to Coqui, which guaranty was executed by Defendant Schwartz ("the Schwartz Guaranty Letters"). The letters demanded payment in full of the outstanding commitments by February 20, 2007.

87. By separate letters dated February 5, 2007, SBA and the Receiver both made demand upon Defendant Albert Lyons pursuant to a guaranty of payment of the capital commitment made by Vestal Venture Capital to Coqui, which guaranty was executed by Defendant Lyons ("the Vestal Guaranty Letters"). The letters demanded payment in full of the outstanding commitments by February 20, 2007.

88. By separate letters dated February 5, 2007, SBA and the Receiver both made demand upon Sylvia Maslow pursuant to a guaranty of payment of the unfunded capital commitments made by IRM Associates (“the IRM Guaranty Letters”) to Coqui, which guaranty was executed by Defendant Maslow. The letters demanded payment in full of the outstanding commitments by February 20, 2007.

89. By separate letters dated March 28, 2007, and in accordance with section 5.02 of the Amended LPA, the Receiver made demand upon LK2ST, Ltd for its outstanding capital commitment. The letter gave Defendant LK2ST, Ltd until April 9, 2007 to pay its remaining unfunded commitment.

90. The Receiver and SBA, by separate letters dated April 10, 2007 and April 16, 2007, respectively, made demand upon David Layton pursuant to a guaranty of payment of the capital commitment of LK2ST, Ltd. To Coqui, which guaranty was executed by Defendant Layton (“the LK2St.Guaranty Letters”). The letters demanded payment in full of the outstanding commitments by April 23, 2007.

91. By separate letters dated February 5, 2007, the Receiver made demand upon Defendants Kier, Koffman and Davidson for their respective portion of the unfunded commitment of Coqui Capital Management, LLC. The letters demanded payment in full by February 20, 2007.

92. Each and every one of the of the Defendants has failed to remit payment in accordance with their respective Call Letters, Demand Letters or Guaranty Letters and each of the Defendants is in default of their respective obligations under the terms of the LPA, the 11/19/03 Capital Certificate and/or their guaranties.

93. To date, the Defendants owe Coqui over $4.4 million in the aggregate plus interest and costs due pursuant to the terms of the Amended LPA.

COUNT ONE
BREACH OF CONTRACT – COQUI CAPITAL MANAGEMENT

94. Plaintiff re-alleges and reincorporates paragraphs 1 through 93 as though fully set forth herein.

95. Pursuant to the LPA and Amended LPA, Coqui Capital Management (“CCM”) committed to invest $143,826.00 in Coqui in exchange for a one percent limited partnership interest in Coqui.

96. Section 5.02 (c) of the Amended LPA provides that any capital commitment amounts due from each limited partner, other than the initial capital contribution, shall be paid in such amounts and at such time as determined by the General Partner in its sole discretion. Coqui’s pre-receivership official books and records indicate that CCM’s initial capital contribution was received by Coqui on or about June 30, 2000 in the form of a promissory note.

97. Via letter dated May 8, 2006, and in accordance with Section 5.02(c) of the Amended LPA, the Receiver, who has all of the authority and powers of Coqui’s General Partner, made demand upon CCM for payment in full of its outstanding commitment to Coqui in the amount of $44,586.00.

98. By letter dated August 21, 2006, and in accordance with Section 4.09 of the Amended LPA, SBA, the federal agency and third party beneficiary, made demand upon CCM for payment in full of its unfunded capital commitment in the amount of $44,586.00.

99. To date, CCM has failed to honor its obligations under the CCM Agreement, LPA and the Amended LPA and has failed to pay its capital contribution as demanded by the Receiver and SBA.

100. As a consequence of Defendant CCM’s failure to honor the terms of the CCM

Agreement, LPA and the Amended LPA, the Receiver for Coqui and the Coqui receivership estate have suffered, and continue to suffer, damages in the amount of $44,586.00, plus interest thereon.

COUNT TWO
BREACH OF CONTRACT – ISAAC KIER

101. Plaintiff re-alleges and reincorporates paragraphs 1 through 100 as though fully set forth herein.

102. On or about January 14, 2000, Defendant Isaac Kier executed a Subscription Agreement (“I Kier Agreement”) between himself and Coqui Capital Partners, LP. Pursuant to the I Kier Agreement, Defendant Isaac Kier committed to invest $2,250,000.00 in Coqui.

103. Section 5.02 (c) of the Amended LPA, accepted and acknowledged by Defendant Isaac Kier pursuant to Section 1 of the I Kier Agreement, provides that any capital commitment amounts due from each limited partner, other than initial capital contribution, shall be paid in such amounts and at such time as determined by the General Partner in its sole discretion. Coqui’s pre-receivership official books and records indicate that Defendant Isaac Kier’s initial capital contribution was received by Coqui on or about December 6, 1999.

104. Via letter dated May 8, 2006, and in accordance with Section 5.02(c) of the Amended LPA, the Receiver, who has all of the authority and powers of Coqui’s General Partner, made demand upon Defendant Isaac Kier for payment in full of his outstanding commitment to Coqui in the amount of $697,500.00 by June 15, 2006.

105. By letter dated August 21, 2006 and in accordance with Section 4.09 of the Amended LPA, SBA, the federal agency and third party beneficiary, made demand upon Defendant Isaac Kier for payment in full of his unfunded capital commitment in the amount of $697,500.00 by September 1, 2006.

106. To date, Defendant Isaac Kier has failed to honor his obligations under the Kier Agreement, LPA and the Amended LPA and has failed to pay his capital contribution as demanded by the Receiver and SBA.

107. As a consequence of Defendant Isaac Kier's failure to honor the terms of the Kier Agreement, LPA and the Amended LPA, the Receiver for Coqui and the Coqui receivership estate have suffered, and continue to suffer, damages in the amount of $697,500.00, plus interest thereon.

COUNT THREE
BREACH OF CONTRACT – ISAAC KIER

108. Plaintiff re-alleges and reincorporates paragraphs 1 through 107 as though fully set forth herein.

109. The official books and records of Coqui as turned over to the Receiver by Coqui Capital's general partner contain a Capital Certificate dated 11/19/03. The Capital Certificate, executed and verified as true and correct by Isaac Kier, indicates that each member of Coqui's general partner is responsible for the payment of a portion of the unfunded commitment due from Defendant CCM to Coqui.

110. Via letters dated May 8, 2006 and August 21, 2006, respectively, the Receiver and SBA made demand upon CCM for payment in full of its outstanding commitment to Coqui in the amount of $44,586.00.

111. To date, CCM has failed to honor the Receiver and SBA.

112. By letter dated August 21, 2006, SBA made demand upon Defendant Isaac Kier for $14,862.00, his portion of CCM's unfunded commitment as reported in the 11/19/03 Capital Certificate, to be paid no later than September 1, 2006.

113. By letter dated February 5, 2007, the Receiver made demand upon Defendant

Isaac Kier for $14,862.00, his portion of CCM's unfunded commitment as reported in the 11/19/03 Capital Certificate, to be paid no later than February 20, 2007.

114. To date, Defendant Isaac Kier has failed to honor his obligations and has failed to pay his portion of CCM's unpaid capital commitment as demanded by SBA and the Receiver.

115. As a consequence of Defendant Isaac Kier's failure to honor the demands for payment made by SBA and the Receiver, Coqui and the Coqui receivership estate has suffered, and continue to suffer, damages in the amount of $14,862.00, plus interest thereon.

COUNT FOUR
BREACH OF CONTRACT - JEFFREY DAVIDSON

116. Plaintiff re-alleges and reincorporates paragraphs 1 through 115 as though fully set forth herein.

117. On or about December 16, 1999, Defendant Jeffrey Davidson executed a Subscription Agreement ("J Davidson Agreement") between himself and Coqui Capital Partners, LP. Pursuant to the J Davidson Agreement, Defendant Jeffrey Davidson committed to invest $510,000.00.

118. Section 5.02 (c) of the Amended LPA, accepted and acknowledged by Defendant Jeffrey Davidson pursuant to Section 1 of the J Davidson Agreement, provides that any capital commitment amounts due from each limited partner, other than initial capital contribution, shall be paid in such amounts and at such time as determined by the General Partner in its sole discretion. Coqui's pre-receivership official books and records indicate that Defendant Jeffrey Davidson's initial capital contribution was received by Coqui on or about December 6, 1999.

119. Via letter dated May 8, 2006, and in accordance with Section 5.02(c) of the Amended LPA, the Receiver, who has all of the authority and powers of Coqui's General Partner, made demand upon Defendant Jeffrey Davidson for payment in full of his outstanding commitment to Coqui in the amount of $158,100.00 by June 15, 2006.

120. By letter dated August 21, 2006, and in accordance with Section 4.09 of the Amended LPA, SBA, the federal agency and third party beneficiary, made demand upon Defendant Jeffrey Davidson for payment in full of his unfunded capital commitment in the amount of $158,100.00 by September 1, 2006.

121. To date, Defendant Jeffrey Davidson has failed to honor his obligations under the J. Davidson Agreement, LPA and the Amended LPA and has failed to pay his capital contribution as demanded by the Receiver and SBA.

122. As a consequence of Defendant Jeffrey Davidson's failure to honor the terms of the J. Davidson Agreement, LPA and the Amended LPA, the Receiver for Coqui and the Coqui receivership estate have suffered, and continue to suffer, damages in the amount of $158,100.00, plus interest thereon.

COUNT FIVE
BREACH OF CONTRACT – JEFFREY DAVIDSON

123. Plaintiff re-alleges and reincorporates paragraphs 1 through 122 as though fully set forth herein.

124. The official books and records of Coqui as turned over to the Receiver by Coqui Capital's general partner contain a Capital Certificate dated 11/19/03. The Capital Certificate, executed and verified as true and correct by Isaac Kier, indicates that each member of Coqui's general partner is responsible for the payment of a portion of the unfunded commitment due from Defendant CCM to Coqui.

125. Via letters dated May 8, 2006 and August 21, 2006, respectively, the Receiver and SBA made demand upon CCM for payment in full of its outstanding commitment to Coqui in the amount of $44,586.00.

126. To date, CCM has failed to honor the demand made by the Receiver and SBA.

127. By letter dated August 21, 2006, SBA made demand upon Defendant Jeffrey Davidson for $14,862.00, his portion of CCM's unfunded commitment as reported in the 11/19/03 Capital Certificate, to be paid no later than September 1, 2006.
